Dr. Kalman is Clinical Associate Professor of Psychiatry, Weill Medical College of Cornell University, and Adjunct Associate Professor of Psychiatry, NY Medical College. He has maintained a private practice in general psychiatry and psychoanalysis for over thirty years, integrating different techniques and understandings along with a primarily psychodynamic orientation. Dr. Kalman's current areas of interest and research involve split-treatment arrangements and the problem of inadequate communication between professionals treating the same individual. Other recently presented and published work involves problematic Internet use, specifically pornography. Dr. Kalman's other graduate degree is in health care administration, and he remains interested in health care delivery, economics, and policy.
