

Mariam Cohen, M.D., Psy.D.

mariamcohen@cox.net

Dr. Cohen is in private practice of psychiatry and psychoanalysis in Scottsdale, AZ. She is on the faculty of the psychiatric residency at Banner Good Samaritan Medical Center in Phoenix, AZ, where she teaches psychodynamic psychotherapy. She is a Faculty Associate in the School of Historical, Philosophical, and Religious Studies, Arizona State University, where she is a Ph.D. candidate in religious studies. She is a Psychoanalytic Fellow and a member of the Board of Trustees of the AAPDP.

Research interests focus on the role of psychodynamic assessment in treatment planning and the role of religion and spirituality in psychotherapy.

Selected publications and presentations:

Da Vinci Dynamically Decoded, 48th Winter Meeting, American Academy of Psychoanalysis and Dynamic Psychiatry, Washington, D.C., December 2004;

Journal of the American Academy of Psychoanalysis and Dynamic Psychiatry
33:729-740, 2005

The Role of Spirituality in Dynamic Psychotherapy, 48th Winter Meeting, American Academy of Psychoanalysis and Dynamic Psychiatry, Washington, D.C., December 2004

Co-editor (with Spero, MH), Special Issue: The God Representation in the Psychoanalytic Relationship: When Is Three a Crowd? Journal of the American Academy of Psychoanalysis and Dynamic Psychiatry, Vol. 37, Spring 2009

An Old God Awakens, Briefly, Journal of the American Academy of Psychoanalysis and Dynamic Psychiatry, Vol. 37, No. 1, p. 35-48, 2009