

Thomas B. Kirsch, M.D.

tkirsch@jungians.com

Website: www.jungians.com

Dr. Kirsch is a Jungian Analyst practicing in Palo Alto since 1968.

For 25 years he was on the Faculty in the Department of Psychiatry at Stanford University. He is a Fellow of the American Academy of Psychoanalysis, member of the International Association for Analytical Psychology and of the C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco.

He is past president of the C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco and past President of the International Association of Analytical Psychology. He was deeply involved in opening up the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe to analytical psychology.

He has lectured world wide on the history of analytical psychology, the therapeutic process, dreams, and Jungian identity in the Depth Psychology world.

He authored 35 papers, many book chapters, and 'The Jungians'-a sociological study of the Jungian movement. Most recently he has written a preface to the Correspondence between C.G. Jung and James Kirsch.

For the past four years he has been teaching Analytical Psychology in Taiwan and Hong Kong,. His most recent trip was in November of 2011.

He has been on the board of the Archive for Archetypal Symbolism since 1999. This is an image catalogue of 17000 pictures located in New York (www.aras.org).

He has also been the chair of Extended Education for the C.G. Jung Institute of San Francisco where he has sponsored history conferences in depth psychology, conferences on the Red Book, 'Jung and Freud today', and 'Jung and Judaism'. Most recently he has been involved in discussions of the new movie, A Dangerous Method.