

Craig L. Katz, M.D.
craigkatz@gmail.com

Dr. Craig Katz is associate clinical professor of psychiatry and medical education at the Mount Sinai School of Medicine in New York City. In addition, Dr. Katz holds the positions of Chief Faculty Advisor and Director of Professional Development and founded and directs the Program in Global Mental Health at Mount Sinai. He co-founded Disaster Psychiatry Outreach (DPO), a charitable organization devoted to the provision of voluntary psychiatric care to people affected by disasters. Dr. Katz has a private practice in general and forensic psychiatry in Manhattan, including a significant psychodynamic focus, and is the 2011-12 President of the New York County District Branch of the American Psychiatric Association.

Recent Publications

Wang M, Wiegand J, Katz CL. Global mental health as a component of psychiatric residency training. Psychiatric Quarterly, June 17, 2011, epublication

Reissman DB, Kowalksi-Trakofler KM, and Katz CL. Public health practice and disaster resilience: a framework integrating resilience as a worker protection strategy. In Southwick SM, Litz BT, Charney D, and Friedman MJ, eds. Resilience and Mental Health: Challenges Across the Lifespan, Cambridge University Press, New York, NY 2011, pp.340-358.

Recent Presentations

Introduction to Global Mental Health, Mount Sinai School of Medicine, Masters in Public Health program, October 4, 2011

Katz CL, Narla G, and Anand S. Workshop: Navigating Boundaries in a New Team Based Advisory System, Professional Development Conference, American Association of Medical Colleges, June 11, 2011

American Society for Adolescent Psychiatry, Annual Meeting- Disaster Psychiatry: Good Intentions Seeking Science and Sustainability- Focus on Adolescents (March, 2011)